

Indigenous Health Practice & Health Research Conference – Building On Our Roots

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Hamilton, Ontario
October 17 & 18, 2017

Conference Host:

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES:

De dwa da des nye>s is delivering their inaugural Indigenous Health Research and Health Practice Conference in Hamilton, Ontario on October 17 & 18, 2017. This is an exciting time to bring the work forward by Indigenous communities and researchers as we all work towards understanding the current state of Indigenous Health both from a scientific and practice model.

It is an opportunity to look to the Health Calls for Action derived from the Truth and Reconciliation Report and note the steps made towards improving health status of the Indigenous people here in Canada.

The Mission of the conference committee is to bring together thought leaders, individuals interested in Indigenous Health good and /or promising practice, and those interested in Contemporary and Relevant Indigenous health research.

GIVING SPONSORS A NATIONAL STAGE - AN EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY

Sponsorship of this conference, affords a unique opportunity to build positive name awareness, enhance community relations, and demonstrate your organization's commitment to Indigenous Health and culture.

PRIMARY AUDIENCE: First Nation Chiefs from across Canada, First Nation health staff, Health Centres, Hospital administration, Universities, Corporate Canada, federal and provincial governments interested in First Nation health issues and research.

ESTIMATED NUMBER OF ATTENDEES: 500
