Community Representatives Board of Directors (Community Representative)

De dwa da dehs nye>s Aboriginal Health Centre is accepting applications for two community representatives from the DAHC catchment area (Brantford/Brant, Haldimand, Hamilton, Niagara and Norfolk) for the Board of Directors.

The organization is seeking applicants from Indigenous persons, including representatives of Indigenous Youth and Elders, or persons with a demonstrated and meaningful interest in Indigenous health issues. The Board is seeking members who may have skills and experiences that can complement those of current board members, such as in the fields of Finance.

Established in 1998, De dwa da dehs nye>s Aboriginal Health Centre as a non-profit organization, is an Indigenous designed and controlled body dedicated to improving the wellness of Aboriginal individuals and of the Indigenous community by providing services which respect people as individuals with a distinctive cultural identity and distinctive values and beliefs.

Our services include Indigenous wholistic preventative and primary care services that includes Physicians, Nurse Practitioners, Registered Nurses, Certified Diabetes Educators, Foot Care Nurses, Mental Health and Diabetes Management, with a particular emphasis on traditional health and healing; health research and health information; and capacity building with public education.

The Board of Directors meets on average 10 times per year for approximately 2.5 hours, currently the meetings are held on the first Monday of each month and alternate between Hamilton and Brantford sites. Currently, we are seeking applications to fill one (1) vacancy.

Applications must include a cover letter, recent CV and references.

Please apply via e-mail, board@dahac.ca in confidence.

The successful applicant will be required to submit a Vulnerable Sector Police Clearance (CPIC).
